

*6th Nov 1990 Ramakrishna Loka visit by Shiva Shakti and Madonna
Notes from Shiva Shakti*

‘Here is health without food, because love nourishes here. First come, eventually they will receive. We are private in our community, but outsiders can benefit from the overgrowing leaves. What we are saying is the overflowing tide from the sea of immortality. You can’t block the high tide, it will come. While you are doing your 40 winks you can catch Him. In meditation rest, in yoga sleep, you “gaze with unwinking eyes”. So close eyes. Here is the reserve table for the living deities. Why go somewhere else to meet people?’¹ A prophet is not known in his own land, nor are his humble servants.

‘Keep to your foundation. God has a thousand names and forms, but bow personally to Him, even in thought, and you will benefit. Have one thought, with a spoonful of love, and your soul will digest one day in eternity. An ounce in the spoon of deeds and love, a dose now and then of meditation medicine, a recharging bottle in our gathering. We have to have a lot of inner circle meeting to reinstate what we have said. Open a door so I can step in – my hello is Ha ha ha ha ha Hara!

‘My dream goes beyond dream. Dreams only give a hint. Dreams can be warnings. Bud dreams of God alone are real, a hint, but I am no more a dreamer. We have an unbreakable relationship for many births now. Friendship lasts, we will ever meet. I have known you before. We are not foreigners in heaven, we are going Om. A note from paradise, a paradestic meeting. A taste, a drop, a stroke. We are reality in friendship, in communion. We communicate the word in the mouth of our heart and in the depths of our soul.

‘Our meeting is our school. Our thought is your thought. Our practice will be your development for your life long. Two days, birth and death, He came down to live in this world. In one day he turned a new leaf into a new life eternal. In two days he took one day, he converted day into night, night into day, and lives in that great night day.

With your mind you understand other religions, but in your heart you have a chapel for the Divine Mother. Grace, nectar of immortality comes to the devotee through the attention of God’s compassion. People can speak, but often their actions are far from their words; words and deeds don’t tally. In Mauritius 90% worship God with selfish motivation.² In Mauritius everything is gone. Here, is full of holiness and vibration. Whatever is buried sprouts in the tip of your fingers. Whatever is buried consciously with love you pick up in handfulls. We are unique in our dealing with God. There is no hiding between you, us and God. If God shows it to us we show it to you. God is our eyelashes, protects us in His sight. We are the pupils of the sight, in God’s eye.

‘God is not known but He is living everywhere. Yes? That is the greatest question. Those who know He exists have not found Him. Those who have found Him quietly know He is everywhere, so they start seeing him in living beings. See Krishna everywhere. Discrimination, dispassion, realisation. The realisation is between you and me, with God between us as witness consciousness. If you deny it, you are far from what you are seeking. If you deny it, say goodbye, see you later on.

¹ People were beginning to talk about Ammachi, whom had given darshan at St James’s Piccadilly in October

² Swamiji had just returned from visiting his family in Mauritius.

‘Patience is a golden pea, like a grain. He who has patience has gold. Patience into action will terminate in a fruitful, beneficial, profitable harvest. Patience falls like rain into format of rainbow; showers into colours, multifarious, showers that yield profit. May patience shower all these colourful, profitable, yielding blessings from heaven to earth, from earth to heaven.

‘We close the door to harassment, but anything that pleases is made welcome. Be good here, be good in hemisphere, be good above hemisphere. People from different lokas are coming to benefit here, but people here are not benefiting. If there is no interest, there is no link or relation. You show me your interest, I will show you my greater interest. Reality is not an invention, you happen to be here, you are summoned. Reality summons his people, reality seeks his people. This is why he wants them to have a dive, a dip for your advancement and progress. Please advance ahead fearlessly, headlong. God shows His devotee their progress. God doesn’t hide much from His devotees.

‘The bound must give his bound mind to the limitless, unfathomable, depthless one who out of his own accord and graces brings the ocean of immortality for his beloved to have a dive. This is revelation from the ocean of Satchitananda, where those who ventured fearlessly are the prize winners in the ocean of immortality. It’s simple, deep, beautiful, challenging, puzzling, like the ocean, defeating. Natation in the ocean of God is a sign of spiritual advancement and progress. Easy natation means you are progressing, your soul swims like a hovercraft. It is said over and over, cross the ocean of this world with Hari’s name.

‘At the end of time you will see the Son of Man coming through the cloud. We are protected by the aura of the man coming through the cloud. Trying to put vision into words something gets blurred. The vision is a word understood unspokenly, like a flash. Close subtle vision. I leave you under the protection from the same aurific lake. We are all in the same water of baptism. We form part and parcel of the same vision.

‘Music has got a patron. When you have gone away it comes back to you like a child, it hugs you. The person has to register what he has heard and take it home, so that the sound reproduces and echoes in his body, mind and soul. A duet and a triple consciousness with the devotees attention. A person is a gift of God. God is so full. Out of his fullness we have fallen. We are a miniature product of this full, this absolute. A person is a gift full of unknown endowed talent, it’s in the subconscious, but he can’t skilfully put it into practice until he retraces, and then he takes long steps.’

Morning, 7th Nov.

‘Meet where you can be fed by the residue. Meet where you can get life. My mission is, I have come to reinforce, to ascertain our angelic links. Depending who is brought here, the wings get decorated or clipped. You produce honey of love so meet where you can get life. Two wings, you are like two handmaidens, flying.
